END OF RAILROAD STRIKE PREDICTED FOR FRIDAY, 15TH

At this time the NEWS went to press Thursday afternoon the indications were very favorable for the ending of the strike.

The General Superintendent of the C. & O. on Thursday morning ordered all through freight trains to resume operations. A long coal train passed through Louisa in the afternoon.

While no official announcement had been made, the belief was expressed that the full passenger service will be resumed Friday, and also the local freight service. It was hoped we would have train No. 38 on Thursday evening, but no orders had been received up to 2 o'clock p. m.

The obstinate shopmen at Huntington are about the only ones now holding out and there is evidence of dissension among them. The conservatives are beginning to express themselves as desiring to return to work. The radical element, as usual, is causing the continuance of the trouble, and it is time the conservatives were asserting themselves in all these matters.

OIL FOUND IN ELLIOTT COUNTY

An oil well reported to be good for 25 barrels per day has been drilled in near Russell county in Elliott county, on the headwaters of the middle fork of Little Sandy. The depth is 1150 feet and the strike is said to be in the Berea sand. The well is on the land to a man named Hutchison. When drilled there was only a small showing of oil, but a shot of 100 quarts produced excellent results.

This may mean the opening of a new pool of good size.

OUR RED CROSS CHAPTER TO CONTINUE ACTIVE

Mr. Karn, field representative of the American Red Cross, for the state of Kentucky, was in Louisa on Wednesday. Some of the members of the Red Cross were called together to receive instruction and information in reference to the peace time activities of the organization.

After discussion, it was decided to continue the chapter organization in Lawrence county. There is a probability of the office being closed, in which event the secretary will secure desk room in some other office.

The officers and directors are to be: T. F. Duff, S. P. Petter, F. M. Vinson, T. F. Duff, O. C. Atkins, J. Israel, J. B. Vaughan, G. R. Burgess.

ANDREW CARNEGIE DIES IN MASSACHUSETTS

Lenox, Mass.—Andrew Carnegie, steel magnate and philanthropist, died at his Lenox summer home, Shadow Brook, at 7:10 o'clock Monday morning after an illness of less than three days with bronchial pneumonia. So sudden was his death that his daughter, Mrs. Roswell Miller, was unable to get to her father's bedside before he died. His wife and private secretary were with him at the end.

He was taken ill Friday and grew steadily worse. His advanced age and lessened powers of resistance hastened the end.

Mr. Carnegie leaves his widow, who was Miss Louise Whitefield, of New York, and his daughter, Margaret, who married last April Ensign Roswell Miller, of New York.

Andrew Carnegie had given away $350,695,563 up to June 1, 1918, a compilation of his benefactions prepared by the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace Shows.

SHERIFF ARRESTS OUTLAW WITH ABDUCTED GIRL

Va.—Manderville Farley, alleged leader of an outlaw and moonshiners' band in the Flat Top Mountains, and charged with desertion from the army and abduction of the 14-year-old daughter of Kenneth Ashbire, a farmer, was arrested by the Sheriff of Raleigh county. He was captured in the mountains with his brother, Maitland, and the girl whom it is alleged he abducted. The three were placed in jail at Beckley, W. Va. When arrested, the Farleys, though armed, made no resistance.

Lobaco Company to Start New Building

The Lobaco Company tore down the upper part of the front wall of the bakery building and will reconstruct it. The fire had put it out of line.

Work was stopped by the railroad tie-up, but will be resumed soon.

R. T. Burns has moved his office building in the west side of the Coca-Cola building so as to make way for the construction of the new Lobaco plant. This will consist of a large brick structure adjoining the Coca-Cola building on the east side, and work will start as soon as material can be placed on the ground.

Mr. Adams is in Cleveland this week buying an ice plant and other equipment. The bakery will be in operation by October 15th.

Pike County Town Swept By Flames

The entire business section of Hellier a mining town in southern Pike county, Ky., was destroyed by fire Wednesday. The postoffice, a theater, three grocery stores, a restaurant, and several dwellings were destroyed. Electric wiring is believed to have caused the fire. The loss is estimated at $100,000.

STATE S. S. MEETING TO BE HELD NEXT WEEK IN ASHLAND

Each Sunday School in the State is expected to send at least one delegate, and many schools are entitled to several. Some schools are planning to send all their teachers and officers.

Wednesday, August 20, will be "Lawrence County Day" and it is thought many from this county will attend.

Expert Making Survey for Wart Disease of Potatoes

A representative of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, Plant Bureau, Plant Disease Survey, was in Louisa this week for the purpose of making survey of this section of Kentucky for wart disease of potatoes. His aim is to locate it if it is here and at the same time further information to all potato users that they may co-operate with the department in its discovery should it occur.

The potato industry is endangered by a serious disease, new to us, called wart disease of potato, discovered in Pennsylvania in 1915 and believed possibly to be in other parts of the country. It, without doubt, came from Europe where it caused a serious shortage of the crop with stringent effects on the consumers and as a result an embargo was put on all foreign importations into this country in 1912. However, before the embargo went into effect it is known that foreign cargoes entered several of our principal eastern ports. The disease necessitates a rigid quarantine for an indefinite period of time as a preventative measure against further infestation. It is desired that potato users be especially watchful due to the fact that our first infestation was probably from table stock.

The disease is readily recognized by rough, spongy outgrowths varying from the size of a pea to that of the tuber itself, being embedded especially at the eyes or at injured places. These outgrowths are light brown at first but with age become black and rapidly decay causing soil infestation by the spores (seeds of fungi) thus liberated. Soil infestation may last for years. The disease does not effect the foliage (tops) so watch while you plant or dig and report promptly and send specimens of suspicious ones to your county agent, your state experiment station at Lexington, or to Plant Bureau, Plant Disease Survey, Washington, D. C.

SEVERAL NEW OIL WELLS IN PROSPECT

Conflicting reports have been received about the well on the land of Dr. C. B. Walters, on upper Blaine. We have not been able to get anything definite, but it seems at least to promise sufficient production to pay. Estimates run all the way from four barrels to fifteen.

Ten car loads of pipe for the oil line from Blaine to Huseysville have been shipped. It is billed to Webbville.

In the upper Blaine field the drilling outfit has been moved from the Walters lease to the Collier tract. Also, an outfit from the Phillips lease is now on the Dials tract.

The well on the Emily Morris land should be completed next week. A well is being drilled at Newcomb, just over in Elliott county.

The Union Gas company is drilling additional wells right along.

Well No. 6 on the Peters lease two miles northwest of Louisa, is being started. Also, No. 2 on A. L. Moore's farm. These are New Domain operations.

A Pittsburg firm is taking up a boundary of leases on Rockcastle.

ALBERT HANNERS AND MISS INEZ MURPHY MARRIED

On Wednesday evening Sergeant Albert ("Bud") Hanners and Miss Inez Murphy were united in marriage by Rev. H. B. Hewlett at his residence on Lock avenue. They went to the Brunswick hotel where a wedding supper was served.

Mr. Hanners returned last week from overseas having spent the past year in the service of his country. His bride is a daughter of Thos. Murphy, of Yatesville. She was employed in Riverview hospital, this city, quite a while.

Mr. and Mrs. Hanners are popular in their circle of friends who wish for them every happiness.

CINCINNATI BALL TEAM MAY WIN PENNANT

Throughout this section just now there is a great deal of interest manifested in the race for the pennant in the National Baseball League. Cincinnati is leading in the race for the first time in a great many years at this time in the season. New York is the closest contender. For Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week two games each day were scheduled in New York between these two teams. Cincinnati won both of the games on Wednesday.

H. WEILER RETURNED.

Hillard Weiler, of Ironton, who was with the Ninth Infantry at the battle of Chateau Thierry, and who was twice wounded in action, is now undergoing treatment at the hospital at Fort Sheridan, Ill.

W. VA. PROHIBITION OFFICER KILLED

Charleston, W. Va.—Will Farley, a deputy state prohibition officer, was shot and killed Tuesday by moonshiners when he was in bed at his home on Hart's Creek.

The attack followed a raid Farley and Deputy G. S. Johnson had conducted earlier in the evening on Hoover Creek, in which they seized a still, dismantled it and took it to Farley's home.

A posse was organized in the vicinity of the shooting and pursuit was started toward the Kentucky border, in which direction it was believed the murderers fled.

The state prohibition offices has offered a reward of $100 for the capture of each of the three men, and has notified the Kentucky border officers to be on the lookout for them.

Farley had been in the employ of the State Prohibition Department only about a month, having been employed because of his knowledge, through his residence there, of the conditions existing on Hart's Creek, said to be one of the worst moonshining centers in the state. He formerly was a Deputy Sheriff in Logan county.

FARMERS MEETINGS ON BIG SANDY KILLED BY STRIKE

The Farmers Community meetings advertised for Louisa, Paintsville and Pikeville for Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week were canceled by headquarters at Louisville because of the railroad strike. The managers of the enterprise said they could not get the speakers and equipment to the meetings.

The announcement came too late for last week's issue of this paper, but we hope the people in the country will hear about the cancellation in time to save them a trip. Notices have been sent out in the mails.

BILLUPS-WHITING.

Mr. Billups, a son of Mr. George Billups and a grandson of Mrs. Nancy Billups, they came to Louisa ostensibly to visit relatives, but the chief object was probably a somewhat romantic wedding.

The wedding was a secret as the parties desired to withhold it from Louisa relatives until they returned to Columbus.

GROCER FINED.

A retail grocer in New York who sold sugar at 15 cents per pound was fined $500 for profiteering.

Big Sandy Boy Is Photographed in France

The picture of Henry H. See, of Three Mile, this county, appeared on the cover of a recent issue of the Lake Division News, a paper published by the Red Cross. The picture shows him reaching out of a car window for a lunch offered by a Red Cross girl. It is impossible to lose these Big Sandy boys. Somehow they get in the spot light in Europe as well as at home.

The good work of the Red Cross is shown by the picture and it brings to us forcibly the fact that these angels of mercy were everywhere during the great struggle.

RAILROAD STRIKES ARE CONDEMNED BY PUBLIC SENTIMENT

"A strike involving public utilities should be made illegal, with heavy penalties attached," is the opinion we have heard expressed by a very conservative man. He argues that men put themselves in the class of highwaymen when they stop all kinds of business and threaten to starve the people of some isolated sections to death in order to get more money. He says the use of this kind of force to get money is exactly the same performance, in principle, as the man gives when he presents a gun and demands "your money or your life."

The present strike of railroad shopmen, resulting in the stopping of trains and the paralysis of business, called forth the sentiments expressed above and we have quoted them to show the trend of public sentiment.

The public pays the cost of strikes. The great masses of the people are the sufferers and it is unreasonable to expect them to sympathize with a thing that increases their burdens needlessly.

The present scarcity of sugar is almost entirely due to a strike of marine workers which has stopped the shipping of raw sugar from Cuba and other producing centers to the refineries of the United States. This sugar famine has come just at the canning season when much fruit must go to waste for lack of it.

The shopmen's strike has thrown thousands of other laborers out of work. The coal mines are shut down, with a shortage of coal for next winter absolutely certain. There is a shortage of food at many places and perishable food is going to waste at other points. Millions and billions of dollars are being lost as a result of this hold-up.

It is Bolshevism that is doing it. The shopmen now holding out are doing so in violation of the laws of their own union. When the president of the order told the Huntington shopmen this fact last Saturday they treated him disgracefully and refused to hear him further, asking for his resignation. A stronger demonstration of anarchy could not have been given.

President Wilson asked them to return to work in obedience to their union, and at most places they did so. But at Huntington they are suffering from the kind of leadership that always drives men to ruin. Not all of the shopmen or railroad men are in sympathy with this strike, but these men lack the courage to stand out against the violent fellows who have taken the organization in hand and are running away with it.

The shopmen in this strike are demanding $5.00 for ten hours work and $6 for the helpers.

If they are foolish enough to think the public, the suffering public, the public that pays all these bills of wages and losses, is going to endorse a hold-up of themselves, those fellows should have their own heads examined.

It has been suggested that the railroad companies fill the places of these strikers with returned soldiers who want work, and then keep them there regardless of any strike settlement.

The officials of the union had arranged to have a vote on a strike August 25th, but a good many of the shops ignored that program and struck last week. They were ordered back, but a few are holding out.

Nothing could do more than this to increase the cost of living. These men profess to want the high cost of living decreased, but they are doing the most effective thing possible in the other direction, just at the time when the government and the states have started a fight on high prices.

It is reported that five car loads of sugar are in the railroad yards at Russell, five miles below Ashland and the railroad men refuse to move them, although there is a sugar famine in almost every home. The owners of one of the cars has tried to get permission to open the car at Russell and remove the sugar in trucks so as to sell it to people needing it for canning purposes. Permission to do this was firmly refused.

A new, large porch and an extension of the dining room is being made by M. S. Burns on his residence.

R. C. Burton's new residence is going along nicely. The frame work is up. It will be a good two-story building.

T. B. Billups is moving his cottage from the lot adjoining the bakery to his lot at the head of Main street, where the L. M. Copley residence formerly stood.

A new, large porch and an extension of the dining room is being made by M. S. Burns on his residence.

Excavation is being made for the new Christian Church on upper Madison street.

ESTEP AND MUSIC.

Among five appeals from death sentences filed during the vacation period of the Court of Appeals are those of Minard Estep and Charles Music, both convicted of murder in the Boyd county courts.

GOODY O'BRIEN VINDICATES THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS

The Williamson News says: Sergt. Goody O'Brien, born and raised in this city but now of Huntington, comes out in the Huntington Advertiser in favor of the League of Nations and vindicates the position of the fighting soldier. "Goody" is a production of Williamson and left here in a company that went to France in defense of their country. We are glad to know that he is showing his talents in a good cause which may mean a greater distinction in the future.

He is the son of Wm. O'Brien, who lived near Louisa and whose death occurred recently.

BACK FROM OVERSEAS.

Charlie E. Burgess, of Co. B, 34th Engineers, A. E. F., landed at Norfolk, Va., August 5. He passed through Ft. Gay last Saturday on his way to Camp Taylor to be mustered out and will return to his home at Richardson within the next few days.

On August 14th last year he sailed from Camp Upton and reached Liverpool August 27. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Burgess and is the last of their four sons to return from army service.

PAINTSVILLE MERCHANT DIES.

Henry Wheeler, 65, president of the Wheeler Grocery Company, of Paintsville, died Monday in a Louisville hospital, following an illness of several weeks. He was operated on some time ago and was able to be up. His wife and three grown sons survive. His body was taken to his old home in Magoffin county for interment.

GOV. CORNWELL HITS BOLSHEVISM

West Virginia's Governor is proving himself to be a real statesman. He displays the courage that is so badly needed at the present time. Read what he says:

Charleston, W. Va.—Replying to a communication from the Federation of Railway Employees of the Chesapeake system of Huntington, signed by E. T. Brennan, president, and J. H. Williams, secretary, in which they criticized his recent statement opposing the Plumb plan of government ownership of railroads, Governor Cornwell declared that proposition to be "neither sane nor fair."

"To me," the Governor said, "it is little short of amazing that men possessing the intelligence of the trainmen I meet should be guiled into making such an unreasonable and outrageous demand."

"If the public bought the railroads and gave them to you to operate for your benefit, telephone and telegraph employees would demand the same thing of those properties. They have as much right to it as you have. Coal miners would demand that the mines be purchased and given to them, and they have as much right to make that demand as you."

"Farm laborers, with better right, would say: 'We produced the food you live on—buy the farms and give them to us.' Then we have, not Socialism, but chaos."

"Of course, I regret that my fellow citizens should disagree with or feel aggrieved with me because of my views upon public questions, but that can not deter me from having and exercising the same freedom of opinion that you have."

"When you asked for an eight-hour day I was with you heart and soul. I was, and am now, in favor of your obtaining not only fair, but a liberal wage; but when you ask the farmers and the laborers in other lines of work to go in debt $20,000,000,000 through the medium of the Federal Government to buy the railroads and give them to you to use as you please, you are making a proposition that neither is sane nor fair."

"I intend to attempt to present to these inhabitants of the State what this plan means. First, as to the shifting of the burden of taxation, or about $4,000,000 of it, in West Virginia from the railroads to the farmers and home owners, if the Plumb plan was to be accepted, it would make Cabell, Wayne, McDowell, Mercer and Mingo counties unable to pay the debt they are contracting to build public roads. It would stop road building, building of school-houses and all public improvements."

"I have been a laboring man myself—carried a dinner bucket—for $1 a day. My labor now is not regulated by eight, ten or twelve hours, but often sixteen and sometimes eighteen. I am not now, and never expect to be, a capitalist, but I am an American, not a Bolshevik. I stand for law and order, and I am not asking the nation to buy property and give it to me. I prefer to work and give honest service for every dollar I receive."

Rev. Chambers Will Transfer.

Louisa people in general, and especially the congregation of the M. E. Church South, regret very deeply the decision of Rev. Herbert O. Chambers to transfer to the Alabama conference at the end of the present year, which will be early in September. This move was decided upon in the hope of improving the health of Mrs. Chambers. Physicians advised returning to her native state. Mr. Chambers will attend the annual conference at Ravenswood, W. Va., Sept. 3rd. The Alabama conference does not meet until November.

Rev. Chambers has done faithful and efficient work in Louisa and will leave with the best wishes of everybody. Both he and his family have made a great many friends here.

HOME CIRCLE COLUMN

Frankness.

Be frank to the world. Frankness is the child of honesty and courage. Say just what you mean to do on every occasion and take it for granted that you mean to do just what is right. If a friend asks you a favor, you should grant it, if it is reasonable; if it is not, tell him plainly why you can not. You will wrong him and wrong yourself by equivocation of any kind. Never do wrong to make a friend or keep one; the man who requires you to do so is dearly purchased, and at a sacrifice. Deal kindly and firmly with all men and you will find it the policy which wears the best. Above all, do not appear to others what you are not. If you have any fault to find with anyone, tell him, not others, of what you complain. There is no more dangerous experiment than that of undertaking to do one thing to a man's face and another to his back. We should live, act and speak out of doors, as the phrase is, and say and do what we are willing should be known and read of all men.

If anyone needs your sympathy and support it is the public school teacher. The difference whether it is a city school or out in a country district, the trials of a school teacher are manifold and severe. The teacher has to deal with mismanagement of every home in the district, and in too many cases has the bad disposition of the parents as well as the faults of the scholars to contend with.

No individual in the world can do a mother's work for her.

The Profession of Motherhood.

It is a difficult profession—this profession of motherhood. In the animal kingdom, as the offspring grows older, the parents withdraw their ministrations, but in the human family the older children grow, the more diplomacy and enthusiasm is needed by the availing spirit. When the boys begin to get unruly and the girls begin to get sulky—the husband gets less willing to make an effort and more ready to sit quietly by the fire in the evening—when it is that many a family drifts apart. But the mother can have no holiday. She must always be on tap. The only difference is that as the children grow older, she must pretend that it is they and not she who are managing affairs.

Some of us, as we grow old, become so oppressed by the care and sorrows of mature life that we quite forget the days of our youth. The pains and pleasures of childhood seem so trivial that we fail to realize that a child's sorrows are as keen and probably keener, than anything we know in adult life. We forget the exquisite joy that a new toy gave us, and the palpitating pleasures of a visit to town, the ecstatic delight of a day in the woods. And we forget too, the depth of anguish that came with each disappointment.

If some good entertainment comes along, ask the girls and boys if they wish to go. Don't make them beg for a holiday.

What is the good of dwelling upon slights or hostilities? Many of them are fancied. If we have enemies let us avoid them and refuse to think of them. To consider the wrongs that we think another has put upon us fills us with anger and all uncharitableness. Let us rather think of our friends who are a source of peace and pleasure and encouragement, of Christ who said, "Father, forgive them for they know not what they do," and of His apostle who wrote to the Corinthians, "Charity suffereth long and is kind, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked and thinketh no evil."

Mothers, be patient. Do not wound a child; remember it has a tender heart, and who can bear to see the quiver of the baby lips, or hear the sobs of infant sorrow, even after sleep has shut down the tear washed lids? "If we knew the baby fingers, Pressed against the window pane, Would be cold and stiff tomorrow, Never trouble us again, Would the bright eyes of our darling Catch the frown upon our brow, Would the print of rosy fingers Vex us then, as they do now?"

"Melancholy cannot hold its own with perennial good nature. Sunshine is contagious. Smiles are epidemic. One joyous nature will fill an auditorium with good cheer. Despondency is a poor debater. It can bring no argument that sunbeams will not penetrate."

The thief who steals your peace of mind is meaner than the one who steals your property.

Memories of what we learn through bitterness and sorrow may not always be held in regret.

Usually if we postpone a worry for a day or two it will fail to keep its appointment.

The circle of human duties is only complete by the union of those of man and woman.

Those who are much together grow singularly alike as time goes on.

I am writing this to inform the readers of the NEWS that it was a lie about the "surprise party" at W. S. Pennington's. It was written for a stir, and we know the ones that wrote it. There has been a lot of slurs passed on certain ones through the Big Sandy News this summer and it is just one or two families doing it. We are going to give their names to the editor to publish if there are any more such writing. A READER.

RICHARDSON LOSES A CLOSE GAME TO AUXIER

The Richardson ball team went up against the best ball team they have faced this season when they went to Auxier Sunday, Aug. 10. The Richardson boys were handicapped by three of their old reliables, Sheep, Red Blivins and Red Hais, being out of the line up, but despite this handicap Fred Williams pitched good ball, getting 15 of the Auxier luggers by the strike-out route and should have had a shut out game but for errors by Davis, one by Wallace and a wild heave by Burgess, which let in two of the three scores Auxier got. There was some fine fielding on both sides especially in the outfield where there was some sensational catches made.

The score:

"A SPLENDID TONIC"

Says Hixson Lady Who, On Doctor's Advice, Took Cardui And Is Now Well.

Hixson, Tenn.—"About 10 years ago I was..." says Mrs. J. B. Gadd, of this place. "I suffered with a pain in my left side, could not sleep at night with this pain, always in the left side..."

My doctor told me to use Cardui. I took one bottle, which helped me and after my baby came, I was stronger and better, but the pain was still there.

I at first let it go, but began to get weak and in a run-down condition, so I decided to try some more Cardui, which I did.

This last Cardui which I took made me much better, in fact, cured me. It has been a number of years, still I have no return of this trouble.

I feel it was Cardui that cured me, and I recommend it as a splendid female tonic.

Don't allow yourself to become weak and run-down from womanly troubles. Take Cardui. It should surely help you, as it has so many thousands of other women in the past 40 years. Headache, backache, sideache, nervousness, sleeplessness, tired-out feeling, are all signs of womanly trouble. Other women get relief by taking Cardui. Why not you? All druggists.

The weight of the crimson will cause some of it to hull out. Crimson should stay in the barn about four to six weeks, until it gets through the sweat, then it will be alright to hull.

LIFT CORNS OR CALLUSES OFF

Doesn't hurt! Lift any corn or callus off with fingers.

Don't suffer! A tiny bottle of Frezone costs but a few cents at any drug store. Apply a few drops on the corn, calluses and "hard skin" on bottom of feet, then lift them off.

When Frezone removes corns from the toes or calluses from the bottom of feet, the skin beneath is left pink and healthy and never sore, tender or irritated.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For State Senate.
We are authorized to announce Hon. BRIG H. HARRIS, of Boyd county, as a candidate for the State Senate from the district composed of Boyd, Lawrence, Johnson and Martin counties, subject to the action of the Republican party.

No just cause needs force to win its fair contentions. Force is often needed in defending the right, however.

We are face to face with Bolshevism, the cancer that has destroyed Russia. Let every good citizen take a fearless stand against this, the greatest enemy of every republic. Speak out boldly against all forms of anarchy and help to drive it out of the United States.

A united effort on the part of officials, laboring men and the public would in a short time bring a lower level of prices. These periods follow every big war. Time is required to get back to normal. The sooner the returned soldiers get down to work and the more saving of food stuffs we all do, the quicker a fair scale of prices will be reached.

Gov. Cornwell, of West Virginia, is the type of man needed in all our important offices. If our Congress were composed of men as honest, courageous and capable as he, the Bolshevism and other forms of anarchy would never get a foothold in beloved America. He is too true a patriot to play for the votes of outlaws, no matter how numerous they may be.

Keep in mind the important fact that Kentucky will vote at the November election on Statewide prohibition. It is very essential that this vote is favorable, notwithstanding the fact that we now have nation-wide prohibition. The liquor men will fight all these laws in the courts and the only safe course is to put as many laws on the books as possible.

REV. DR. SHANNON IN NORTH CAROLINA

Fred F. Cain, one of our young men who is seeking and finding health at Asheville, N. C., sends us a number of clippings from newspapers of that place announcing lectures and sermons by Rev. E. E. Shannon. We are reprinting only one of them.

We appreciate Fred's thoughtfulness in sending us these clippings about one in whom all people in this vicinity are interested.

The Asheville Citizen says: Dr. Frederick Shannon made a wonderful impression on the audience that heard him yesterday afternoon at the local Y. M. C. A. His subject was "The New World State." He prefaced his address by stating that this was his first trip to North Carolina although he is a Kentuckian by birth. He said the people of the United States had a wonderful opportunity of a wide education by traveling over their own land and meeting different peoples and seeing different ways of the people of our nation. He liked the keenness of the easterner, the warmth of the southerner and the democracy of the westerner, he stated.

His entire address was based on the great saying of Christ and the speaker paid a wonderful tribute to the leadership of Him. He stressed four points as essential for the new world state to be built on. First, a spirit of meekness, this great principle was enunciated by the Saviour in His sermon on the Mount even 1900 years ago; Germany had her pride humbled by the great spirit of meekness that prevailed during the great world war and Dr. Shannon's picture of the surrender of the great German navy was very striking and gripping; second, the greatness of nations depends on serving others, "whoever shall be great let him be a servant," he stated was the principle that is making great nations. The nations must either learn to continue to serve each other or they would be relegated to the past; third, the code of nations was that their dealings with each other must be in the light of public scrutiny.

TEN MILLION BARRELS IS FORECAST FOR 1919

Experts estimate total oil production for the United States will reach 94,600,000 barrels in 1919, which will have a monetary value of $184,000,000. These estimates are based on results thus far this year. For the first six months of this year Texas produced 34,187,850 barrels, of which 10,786,990 barrels were heavy oil produced in the Gulf Coast section and the Corsicana. Kentucky's production in 1919 is roughly estimated at 10,000,000 barrels. These figures are based on pipe line runs so far this year and allowing for the new production that is expected to come in.

VALUE OF EDUCATION.

Out of 5,000,000 with no schooling, 31 attained distinction; out of 33,000,000 with only a grammar school education, 808 attained distinction; out of 2,000,000 with high-school education, 1,245 attained distinction; out of 1,000,000 with a college education, 5,768 attained distinction. In other words, without any schooling whatever a child has one chance in 150,000 of winning distinction. An elementary education increases this chance fourfold; a high-school education increases it 87 times; and a college education increases it 500 times. Less than one per cent of the men of this nation are college graduates. Nevertheless, out of this one per cent of college graduates have come 55 per cent of our Presidents, 36 per cent of the members of Congress, 47 per cent of the Speakers of the House, 54 per cent of the Vice Presidents, 52 per cent of the Secretaries of State, 50 per cent of the Secretaries of the Treasury, 67 per cent of the Attorneys General, and 69 per cent of the Justices of the Supreme Court.

HOME SERVICE LOCATES BOY ABSENT FOR THIRTEEN YEARS

A pathetic story of long years of separation and loneliness was told at the Huntington office of the Home Section, A. R. C., when Dallas Ashcraft, 21, recently returned from France, met his brother, Guy Ashcraft, also an ex-service man, for the first time in thirteen years.

Believing all of his family either dead or beyond location, Dallas Ashcraft had despaired of finding any trace of them. He was placed in an orphan asylum in early years, when his father and mother died, and lost all communication with his brothers and sisters. There are eight in the family.

Dallas applied to the Home Service to help him locate his family when he returned to the states, as he was sick and believed himself near death. State-wide communication was started from the local offices and Guy Ashcraft, of Clarksville, came to Huntington to investigate the matter. Upon his arrival here he was introduced to his brother.

Both of the boys returned to Clarksville. Dallas may not recover, but at least he has realized his greatest desire and is happy with the remaining members of his family.—Huntington Herald.

SMALL AVERAGE OIL OUTPUT.

The average daily production of petroleum in the United States averages only a little more than four barrels for each well, a statement that will surprise many persons who read of the wonderful wealth accumulated by oil men, and of the 1,000-barrel wells—and more—that frequently are brought into production.

According to the reports of the United States Geological Survey, the total production of petroleum in the United States increased from 182 million barrels in 1909 to 240 million barrels in 1917, yet in that period the average daily production per well increased from about 3½ barrels to about 4½ barrels, and this increase was due to the bringing in of new wells. Production from old wells is steadily decreasing and must continue to decrease until the output doesn't pay for pumping.

GOES AIRPLANING.

The following clipping from the Falls City (Neb.) News, will be of interest to readers of this paper. Mrs. J. A. Prichard, of Buchanan, and Mrs. Chas. Hannah, of Portsmouth, also took advantage of the opportunity to ride in an airplane. They were up ten minutes and declare the sensation is great.

Airplane, with Lieut. Brown as driver, was the item of interest in Falls City yesterday. A fine place for landing and starting was found on the Henry Barton place one-half mile east of the city. The field was ideal and the patronage good. Many people enjoyed the experience of a flight. The price charged was a dollar a minute. Fifteen minutes was the longest flight. Miss Duerfeldt, daughter of our deputy county treasurer, took advantage of the opportunity. When she was landed back on terra firma, Miss Duerfeldt said it was just like riding in an auto, only higher up and fascinating sensation. The machine was kept busy until darkness. The machine came here from Sabatha and goes from Falls City to Hlawathia.

Hero Alvin York and His Faith.

The editor of the Centenary Bulletin recently had a conversation with the man who has been acclaimed around the world as the greatest hero of the world war. Sergeant Alvin C. York, of Fall Mail, Fentress county, Tennessee, single-handed killed twenty-five Germans, captured 132, including a major and three lieutenants, and put out of commission thirty-five machine guns. Eight Germans charged him with fixed bayonets at a distance of twenty yards, and he killed all of them with his automatic pistol before they reached him.

York is a mountaineer, a devout member of a mountain religious sect, a strict believer in God and morality, a cool-headed man who knows no fear, and the most accurate shot with a pistol or a rifle in the mountains where all are crack shots. His exploits was the most natural thing in the world for him.

This man is unlettered, but he has a philosophy of life which is profound. When asked about his faith he declared that God had led him. And when he made a speech it consisted of about four short sentences, ending with this: "We must make America a more Christian land." Unmoved by the plaudits of New York and Washington, he hastened back to the mountains, he married his mountain sweetheart, and when he traveled to Nashville, as the guest of the governor, he took his pastor, his mother, and his wife. The ladies, it is said, had never seen a train before.

Mother York sat in the mansion of the state executive, unmoved. She wore her black sateen dress, an ancient poke-bonnet, and a great apron; while she talked she cooled herself with her turkey-leaf fan. She is a member of our own church, and when asked if she was not proud of her son she replied very simply, "I am proud that he is a Christian and has kept the faith through it all. I did not pray that he might be a hero; I did not pray for all this parade and show; I prayed that God would bring my boy back to me, and He did."

Here is the stuff of which heroes are made. A devout mother in a mountain cabin praying for her boy, and that boy in the uniform of his country and carrying in his heart a faith in God—this is a combination which breeds heroism. When a correspondent asked York if he had ever cursed while in the army, the mountaineer answered like a flash, "No, sir! I play the game straight!" When a club wanted him to cross the country to a great convention where he would be winned and dined, he refused—because, as he said, it would be only the show of worldliness.

The story of Alvin York teaches us two or three things which the church should never forget: One is that we need more devout mothers who will teach their sons the principles of holy living; we need the light of faith in humble cabins, the old family altar where children learn to pray, the great and ancient Bible which is in every cabin up in the hills, the gaudy colored cards with scripture texts upon the walls. Our country will produce a citizenship which will keep our liberties for us if we always have heroes like that.

Another thing is that religion is not the softness of effeminate folks. It is "playing the game square," the practice of heroes and those who have the stuff of manhood in them. Though nearly two hundred trained and armed soldiers were upon him and he was all alone, York was not moved; he was a religious man and he thought God was with him. While other soldiers were swearing, gambling, and loitering in the estaminet, York was "playing the game square"; with the plaudits of the world ringing in his ears he hastened from the bright lights back to his mountain sweetheart and his old mother.

York was right when he said, "We must make this a more Christian land." That is what Methodism is trying to do. That is the task of the Centenary. That is why we are planning for a church-wide revival. And we will not forget the mountain folks. It seems providential that just as the Centenary has raised approximately a million dollars to spend in education among this most neglected and imposed on section of our population, a man should come out from among them and amaze the world by his prowess and his piety. There is something in these moun-

COMMUNITY SURVEYS TO DETERMINE DIRECTION OF R. C. PEACE ACTIVITIES

"K NOW your community" surveys are in progress in forty towns and counties in Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky, in a systematic attempt to determine which community problem needs first attention. These surveys are directed in the town or county by the Red Cross Chapter.

Under its peace time program the Red Cross is authorizing its Home Service sections to extend relief activities to cover the after-the-war needs of the community which were brought to light in the work of the Home Service sections for soldiers' and sailors' families.

The findings of the survey committee in each community will determine the particular field into which the Home Service will extend its activities.

Six Red Cross Chapters in Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky have already chosen their lines of extension and have been authorized by the Civilian Relief department at the Lake Division headquarters in Cleveland to go ahead with the work. These chapters are at Dayton, Springfield and Marietta in Ohio; Fowler and Hammond in Indiana; and La Grange, Kentucky. Recreation facilities for the county, child welfare and relief work, and aid and counsel to be given to all families as it has been given to families of soldiers and sailors are some of the lines of future work chosen.

In authorizing the extension of Home Service activities the Red Cross is taking great care that its work will not overlap that of any already existing agency. So little has been done for community betterment in many rural districts that there are many practically untouched fields. The mission of the Red Cross is to supplement rather than to supplant other agencies at work.

WAR-TIME AGENCY FINDS WORK INCREASED WITH PEACE-TIME PROBLEMS

AT LEAST one war organization has found that demands upon it have increased since the signing of the armistice.

The last monthly report received at the Lake Division headquarters of the American Red Cross at Cleveland shows that 40,709 families in Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky have been given aid and counsel during the month. Financial aid has amounted to $68,746 in that time—an increase of over $3,500 over the previous month.

At present there are 30,000 men and women in the United States giving full or part time to Home Service work. There are 267 organized bands of workers in the three states—108 in Ohio, 106 in Indiana and 144 in Kentucky.

BUREAU IS CHEATED TO MEET NEEDS OF RURAL COMMUNITIES

TO BRING about the development of the American rural community is the purpose of the Bureau of Rural Organization, a newly created department of the Civilian Relief Department of the American Red Cross.

Prof. E. L. Morgan of the Massachusetts College of Agriculture has been appointed director.

Already there are 3,700 Red Cross Home Service sections operating in the United States, three-fourths of them in places of less than 5,000 population. The needs of the rural districts have been found to be so many and the organized attempts to remedy so very few that it will be a part of the Bureau's work to put the community in touch with the organization that can best meet its needs, whether it be the Red Cross or another agency.

Always Be Sure of the Number

There are two ways to call a telephone number.

The wrong way is to call from memory; to "take a chance," to trust to luck that your memory doesn't play a trick on you, with the fickle figures in a telephone number.

The right way is to consult the Telephone Directory and make sure you have the right number.

The right way saves annoyance to yourself and to the persons you might have called by mistake. It helps build up a higher grade of service for yourself and others.

Always consult the Directory first.

Joe Compton, a well known citizen of this county, has invented and secured a patent on a broom rack and dust pan hook, and is now having it manufactured by a Cincinnati firm.

This promises Mr. Compton an independent fortune, as it will take millions to supply the demand.

Mr. Compton's wife died about a year ago and he and two sons have been keeping house. Mr. Compton is an inventor and he soon found where he could use his brains to an advantage in the home. He is now lockman at Kavanagh. This will be another Big Sandian to get in this great inventive circle.

Your Red Cross Is Still Busy

READ WHAT YOUR DOLLAR IS DOING

COMMUNITY SURVEYS TO DETERMINE DIRECTION OF R. C. PEACE ACTIVITIES

"K" NOW your community" surveys are in progress in forty towns and counties in Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky, in a systematic attempt to determine which community problem needs first attention. These surveys are directed in the town or county by the Red Cross Chapter.

Under its peace time program the Red Cross is authorizing its Home Service sections to extend relief activities to cover the after-the-war needs of the community which were brought to light in the work of the Home Service sections for soldiers' and sailors' families.

The findings of the survey committee in each community will determine the particular field into which the Home Service will extend its activities.

Six Red Cross Chapters in Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky have already chosen their lines of extension and have been authorized by the Civilian Relief department at the Lake Division headquarters in Cleveland to go ahead with the work. These chapters are at Dayton, Springfield and Marietta in Ohio; Fowler and Hammond in Indiana; and La Grange, Kentucky. Recreation facilities for the county, child welfare and relief work, and aid and counsel to be given to all families as it has been given to families of soldiers and sailors are some of the lines of future work chosen.

In authorizing the extension of Home Service activities the Red Cross is taking great care that its work will not overlap that of any already existing agency. So little has been done for community betterment in many rural districts that there are many practically untouched fields. The mission of the Red Cross is to supplement rather than to supplant other agencies at work.

WAR-TIME AGENCY FINDS WORK INCREASED WITH PEACE-TIME PROBLEMS

AT LEAST one war organization has found that demands upon it have increased since the signing of the armistice. The last monthly report received at the Lake Division headquarters of the American Red Cross at Cleveland shows that 40,709 families in Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky have been given aid and counsel during the month. Financial aid has amounted to $68,746 in that time—an increase of over $3,602 over the previous month. At present there is 30,000 men and women in the United States giving full or part time to Home Service work. There are 257 organized bands of workers in the three states—108 in Ohio, 106 in Indiana and 144 in Kentucky.

BUREAU IS CREATED TO MEET NEEDS OF RURAL COMMUNITIES

TO BRING about the development of the American rural community is the purpose of the Bureau of Rural Organization, a newly created department of the Civilian Relief Department of the American Red Cross. Prof. E. L. Morgan of the Massachusetts College of Agriculture has been appointed director. Already there are 3,100 Red Cross Home Service sections operating in the United States, three-fourths of them in places of less than 5,000 population. The needs of the rural districts have been found to be so many and the organized attempts to remedy so very few that it will be a part of the Bureau's work to put the community in touch with the organization that can best meet its needs, whether it be the Red Cross or another agency.

Many Louisa People Have a Weak Part and Too Often It's the Back.

Many people have a weak spot. Too often it's a bad back. Twinges follow every sudden twist. Dull aching keeps up, day and night. Backache is often from weak kidneys.

In such case a kidney medicine is needed.

Doan's Kidney Pills are for weak kidneys.

For backache and urinary ills. Louisa people recommend the remedy.

Mrs. R. A. Wilson, Rice Ave., Louisa, says: "My back was weak and sore and it hurt me to stoop over. A dull ache across the small of my back made me miserable. After taking Doan's Kidney Pills, I felt all right and my back was strong. I haven't been bothered since."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Wilson had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

HORSE CONFISCATED BY PROHIBITION DEPARTMENT

Charleston, W. Va.—The first horse confiscated by the state prohibition department under the new laws dealing with violations of the liquor laws was reported from War, McDowell county, by Officer D. C. Collins.

The horse belonged to Easter McCoy, of Bear Wallow, Virginia, and carried two gallons of moonshine whiskey upon its back. The girl was leading the animal along the country road when arrested by officers.

Brought before a justice of the peace she was fined $100 and given three months in jail, and the horse turned over to the sheriff of the county. Officer Collins states that he has information to the effect that she was peddling the moonshine in the vicinity of War and Excelsior.

A MIX-UP.

An editor of a country weekly was recently making up a page of his paper, when he "pled" a wedding notice and a notice of public sale. He gathered up the scattered matter and replaced it in the form without taking a proof of it, and this is the way it read:

Wm. Smith, only son of Joseph Smith, and Lucy Maxwell, were disposed of at public auction, at my farm one mile east, in the presence of guests, including two mules and twelve head of cattle. Rev. Jones tied the nuptial knot for the parties, averaging 1240 pounds on the hoof. The beautiful home of the bride was decorated with one sulky rake, one set of work harness, nearly new, and just before the ceremony was performed Mendelshon's wedding march was rendered by one mule cow five years old, one Jersey cow and one sheep carrying a bunch of bride's roses was very beautiful. She wore a light blue spring wagon, two crates of tomatoes, three crates of apples, three racks of hay and a grindstone, trimmed with about 100 bushels of spuds. The bridal pair left yesterday for an extended trip west. Terms cash.

Jones tied the nuptial knot for the parties, averaging 1280 pounds on the hoof. The beautiful home of the bride was decorated with one sulky rake, one set of work harness, nearly new, and just before the ceremony was performed Mendelshon's wedding march was rendered by one mule cow five years old, one Jersey cow and one sheep carrying a bunch of bride's roses was very beautiful. She wore a light blue spring wagon, two crates of tomatoes, three crates of apples, three racks of hay and a grindstone, trimmed with about 100 bushels of spuds. Smashing, Dashing, Auto Polo
Spectacular Feature For Fair

A show must be almost of super quality to vie with the stunning and spectacular saddle horse exhibitions held nightly in the great live stock pavilion of the Kentucky State Fair and in effecting this happy consummation the nicest judgment, sense of spectacular values and practical knowledge is required.

With the possession of these assets already demonstrated by Hippodrome shows in 1917-18 which were notable amusement affairs, Kentucky State Fair Secretary Fount T. Kremer may be relied on to equal or excel these former showings and there is satisfactory assurance in his announcement that the 1919 roster of attractions will be the banner array of State Fair history.

The outstanding feature of this great pavilion entertainment will be the appearance, for the first time in the South, of the magnificent musical organization known as the 71st Regimental New York Guards Band with Lieut. Lammert L. Eben as director. This band figured in all the war activities of the metropolis and is in constant demand for victrola and piano-player work. The organization is made up of forty well-trained and accomplished musicians uniformed in striking military array, and it boasts soloists of high repute in the world of music. Its leader, Lieut. Eben, is a picturesque figure, and is said to be one of the most brilliant directors in America. Their programs will be made up of selections appealing to all tastes.

Of the acts proper the most pretentious to be offered in the pavilion oval will be the auto polo exhibition which is second to none as an amusement combining thrill, clamor, movement and surprises. This game was introduced to State Fair visitors for the first time last season and both in the pavilion and on the race track it aroused a furore of interest and excitement. The game is a species of polo contest played with amounts of roaring, swaying, space-eating autos of especial construction and miniature size. There are no restrictions as to methods of attack and head-on squashes, machine somersaults and "spills" are frequent.

Another act of "dare devil" type is to be presented by the Johannes Jorfesson Troupe of five Icelanders, formerly a big drawing card with the Barnum circus aggregation. Their line of entertainment is a sensational illustration of the possibilities of physical development and understanding of defense in the art of attack. Pistols, bowie knives and blackjacks figure seasonally in their paraphernalia.

"Human Aeroplanes" is the billing of the Four Holises, who are English aerial artists offering amazing mid-air gymnastics. The act includes three men and a pretty woman said to be as skilled as her companions.

Amusing feats of dexterity are promised in the offering of the Portia Sisters who are French girls performing amazing feats of dexterity in mid-air while revolving suspended by teeth or hair. An climax to a thrilling program two of the Portia slide from either end of the pavilion roof suspended by their hair.

A turn attractive to the eye and titillating to the senses is assured in the wheel and wire offering of the MacDonald Trio, as well as the quartet of comedians known as the Ragazzo Smashers.

In "Circus Horsemanship" Fair visitors will be regaled with a spectacle wonderful in the way of super-intelligence and training and of decorative beauty.

Elephants figure in another animal act of amazing and marvellous actor and posing steeds and four people provide a "living statuary" series of patriotic and beautiful character.

The list of Hippodrome features winds up with the stirring, sensational and unusual entertainment of the Seven McKays, as a Scotch troupe of canny Highlanders are described. Their offering is a musical ballet in which the national instrument, the bag-pipes, figure piercingly and pleasingly.

Prizes Totaling $10,000 Will Lure World Champion Horses To Fair

For the third time in State Fair history a $10,000 premium has been announced in connection with the five gaited Saddle Horse Stake which is outstanding feature of the horse department of the Kentucky State Fair.

For seven successive fairs the premiums in this ring had ranged from $500 to $3,000 with only one night's exhibition of the high steppers. In 1917, Commissioner of Agriculture Mat S. Cohen made a whirlwind campaign for funds and by his own personal, brilliant, daring work, secured in donations the splendid sum of $8,835.00, leapling the total premiums for this event to $10,000.

The announcement electrified the show horse world and did just what the commissioner calculated and desired, imbued the breeders and exhibitors of fine horses with new and keen interest in the ring. It also put the Kentucky State Fair on a horse show basis rivaling Madison Square with an entire week of horse events instead of the one exhibition, the saddle horse contests being divided into classes for the stallions on Monday night, the mares on Tuesday night and the geldings on Wednesday with the winners of the first three prizes in each of these classes pitted against each other in a grand struggle for the championship honors of the world on Saturday night.

The venture in 1917 met with unprecedented success and every night of the week the great State Fair live-stock pavilion seating ten thousand spectators was nightly packed to overflowing with enthusiastic spectators who applauded to the echo the magnificent specimens of horse flesh and equally splendid exhibitions of horsemanship which the ring provided. This triumph was repeated in 1918 and as nothing succeeds like success, the fair to outrun all records in 1919.

It also put the Kentucky State Fair on a horse show basis rivaling Madison Square with an entire week of horse events instead of the one exhibition, the saddle horse contests being divided into classes for the stallions on Monday night, the mares on Tuesday night and the geldings on Wednesday with the winners of the first three prizes in each of these classes pitted against each other in a grand struggle for the championship honors of the world on Saturday night.

The venture in 1917 met with unprecedented success and every night of the week the great State Fair live-stock pavilion seating ten thousand spectators was nightly packed to overflowing with enthusiastic spectators who applauded to the echo the magnificent specimens of horse flesh and equally splendid exhibitions of horsemanship which the ring provided. This triumph was repeated in 1918 and as nothing succeeds like success, the fair to outrun all records in 1919.
